Båstad GK

Båstad GK (1939/90), two parkland courses set in undulating countryside in the Bjäre peninsula. The younger course has a more challenging layout than the older course. However, both are extremely varied and require precision. Host for national tournaments. Beautiful scenery.

History

Båstad's old course, designed by the architects Hawtree & Taylor, is one of the best parkland courses in Sweden. Prince Gustav Adolf, later King Gustav VI Adolf, opened the course in 1930. Ludvig Nobel, brother of Alfred Nobel, instigated the formation of the golf club. In 1990, Gustav VI Adolf's son, count Carl-Johan Bernadotte, opened the New Course, designed by Tommy Nordström. This coincided with the club's 60th anniversary.

Restaurant

Daily lunch of the day, à la carte, catering, party arrangements, business lunches (advance booking).

Directions

From Båstad follow road no. 115 towards Torekov. After passing the square and the church, drive approx. 3 km until you reach Boarp. Turn left at the golf sign. After 100 metres, one of the golf courses can be seen on the right. Club is on the right after a further 500 metres.

COPENHAGEN / ØRESUND
ONE DESTINATION · TWO COUNTRIES

Here the local food traditions are tenderly cared for and delicatessen from the neighbouring woods and lands are served. The great smorgasbord is served every day of the year.

Hotel

The building is built in half-timber style and all rooms, dining rooms and conference rooms, of course, have rafters in the ceiling.

From two beautiful cobbled yards, with plantings and murmuring water, all guests have their own entrance.

All rooms are big and tastefully decorated, with nice view over the park and surroundings.

They offer non-smoking rooms, allergy adapted rooms and rooms suited for disabled people.

Restaurant

Everyday, all the year round, the great smorgasbord is put on the table. It is our great pride since there are not many Inns that keep that tradition. The scandinavian food traditions are very important and the restaurant can proudly present different delicatessen from the surrounding countryside. Here you can enjoy wonderful, home cooked meals in a genuine environment.

Hotel Skansen

Hotel Skansen lies next to the harbour in Båstad, close to the sea and the tennis courts. The older part of the building, which dates back to 1877, is a pleasant contrast to the newer part's delightful space and light. The hotel contains of over 200 beds, 17 meeting rooms, a winter garden and a large Spa & Health area.

The Rooms

All rooms have quality beds, internet connections, bathroom with shower. 60 of the rooms are situated in the main building, which consists of two parts, one older and one modern.

The rafters, bricks and atmosphere lives on in the older part and leaves its stamp on the rooms here. The beautiful rooms in the modern part all face the sea. In the newly built and renovated Tennis pavillion they offer 54 very fresh rooms with wonderful decorating details. These rooms opened in July 2004.

The Restaurant

In restaurant Sand the good food is spiced with a tasteful view of the sea and you are welcome to enjoy it from the nice outdoor terraces. There is a wide menu and a delightful wine list. In the summer the four bars and open-air restaurants are open and the nightclub transforms to Båstad's hottest meeting point.
