Bokskogens GK

Bokskogen GK (1964), two contrasting parkland courses immediately east of Malmö. New greens in 2003.

Challenging courses requiring imagination and an ability to keep the ball in play. Host for international and national tournaments. Beautiful scenery.

History

Bokskogen Golf Club is situated on historic ground. Charles XII and his horse rested under an oak tree that can still be seen on the New Course's 6th hole. In 1845 Prince Charles, later Charles XV, also visited the site. The first twelve holes were built in 1965, and two years later the Old Course was completed with the full 18 holes. By 1970, the course had grown to 27 holes. 18 years later, the club applied for permission to extend the 9-hole course, and this was completed in 1991, giving the club 36 holes. In the same year, the Old Course was modified slightly. The following year, a 4-hole Par 3 course was built.

Restaurant

From April to November, a variety of dishes are served daily, ranging from simple snacks and traditional everyday dishes to more exclusive alternatives with meat or fish. All meals include fresh salad buffet with home-baked bread. Dish of the day also includes coffee afterwards.

Directions

From Malmö follow the E65 motorway towards Ystad. Exit at Oxie junction and drive towards Skabersjö. At a church, turn right, and then left towards Torup and follow the signs to the golf course.
