Scandinavia has its very own golf paradise - Skåne.

No other region in Scandinavia has so many golf courses, with such a variety of different types of courses within an hour's drive of each other. Falsterbo GK

Falsterbo GK (1909), links course beside Öresund and the Baltic Sea. Sweden's only 18-hole links course with the character of a traditional British links course. All greens rebuilt between 2000 and 2002. Host for international and national tournaments. Especially beautiful scenery.

History

The club was formed in 1909. A few holes were built east of Falsterbo in the summer of 1909, and in 1911 the 9-hole course was completed on the present area around the lighthouse.

In 1930 the course was re-designed and expanded to 18 holes under the direction of Dr. Gunnar Bauer. Since then the layout of the course has remained more or less unchanged. Over the last few years, the greens have been rebuilt to ensure that the course presents a challenge even to top players. The architects are Peter Chamberlain and Peter Nordwall.

Restaurant

Offers international cuisine, including traditional Swedish dishes. Daily lunch of the day. Open from mid-March to mid-December.

Directions
