Vasatorps GK

Vasatorp GK (1973) is a parkland and woodland course immediately east of Helsingborg. Tournament class facility with generous fairways, which even Seve Ballesteros managed to hit regularly when he won the SEO at Vasatorp. Host for international and national tournaments. Beautiful scenery.

History

Vasatorp Golf Club was formed in 1973. The CEO of Skanska at that time, Ulf Widerström, took the initiative, feeling that the land around Vasatorps Gård would be ideal for a golf course and recreation area.

The first 9 holes were soon ready, and by 1974 the club had a complete 18-hole course in place. The AGM in 1997 decided that the course would be extended with a further 9 holes, and so discussions started with the landowner and Skanska, the contractors. The new holes were opened in time for the start of the 2000 season.
